Celebrate a Pet'acular Thanksgiving and Black Saturday at Lee County Animal Services

Fort Myers, Fla., Oct. 28, 2015 —Lee County Domestic Animal Services is giving adopters a special chance to give a home to a shelter pet throughout November. Adopters may take home a new dog or puppy for just $50 or a new cat or kitten for just $20 during the agency's Pet'acular Thanksgiving adoption promotion. Additionally, on Black Saturday, Nov. 28, all black and predominantly black pets may be adopted for the special fee of $5 for cats and $30 for dogs. When it comes to felines, get twice the love as cats and kittens are always two-for-one adoption fee.

Many families plan to bring home a new pet sometime during the holidays so now is a great time to adopt before the typical December rush. All adoptions still include spay or neuter surgery, age-appropriate vaccinations, microchip ID, and many other veterinary services valued at over $500. The discounts are 60 percent or more off the regular adoption fees.

During the Pet'acular Thanksgiving and Black Saturday promotions potential adopters may visit Animal Services shelter located off Six Mile Cypress Parkway, next to the Sheriff's Office, to meet their new companions. Adoption hours are 10:30 am to 3:30 pm, Monday through Saturday, excluding holidays. For more information call 239-533-7387 (LEE-PETS) or visit www.LeeLostPets.com. Adoption applications may be submitted online. Also, view a current list of pets for adoption and lost pets online. The website updates hourly.
