

Cecil L. Pendergrass
County Commissioner
District Two

Commissioner Cecil L. Pendergrass is a lifelong resident of Fort Myers. He began serving our community in 1984 as a Fort Myers Law Enforcement Officer and faithfully served for 25 years.

On November 20, 2012, Cecil was elected to the Lee County Board of County Commissioners. He currently serves as chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, Lee County Port Authority, Tourist Development Council and board member/commission liaison of numerous local, community and state agencies.

Cecil appreciates the importance of preserving the Florida ecosystem while promoting responsible growth to stimulate the local economy. He is committed to protecting our community and the area's natural resources by actively advocating for water quality projects and the 20/20 Conservation Lands Program, improving roadways for safe/timely travel, controlling spending, creating a business-friendly environment to stimulate job growth, and maintaining a safe/secure public safety program.

He and his wife, Jodi, have been married for 34 years and happily raised their two children in Lee County.

Brian Hamman
County Commissioner
District Four

Commissioner Brian Hamman is a proud Lee County native. A graduate of Cape Coral High School, Brian earned an associate's degree from Florida Southwestern State College and a bachelor's degree in communications from Florida Gulf Coast University.

In the private sector, Brian is the President & CEO of the Greater Fort Myers Chamber of Commerce and spent 10 years in television working his way up from the "camera guy" to a news anchor on the nightly news. In addition, he worked as a financial advisor for Edward Jones and oversaw market development for CenturyLink.

As a County Commissioner, Brian's priorities are to bring jobs to our community, keep taxes low and protect the beautiful environment that draws so many to Lee County.

Brian and his wife Rebecca reside in Cape Coral with their two children, Kaitlyn and Jacob. Brian remains active in the community, serving on various boards and volunteering at his church, Crosspoint Christian.

Mike Greenwell
County Commissioner
District Five

Commissioner Mike Greenwell is proud to serve the citizens of Lee County. After his twelve year professional career with the Boston Red Sox, he returned to Lee County so that he could raise his family and become a local business owner.

Mike was appointed to the Lee County Board of County Commissioners on July 22, 2022, by Governor Ron DeSantis. He is the liaison to the Southwest Florida Regional Planning Council and the Coastal & Heartland National Estuary Partnership. He is a board member serving on the Lee County Metropolitan Planning Organization and Lee County Board of Port Commissioners.

He is passionate about protecting our water quality for generations to come. Other priorities include improving our transportation network and infrastructure, economic growth and keeping taxes low for Lee County families and businesses.

Mike and his wife Tracy are Alva residents and active in the community. He is the past President and Vice President of the community board in North Olga.
