LeeTV now available on CenturyLink's Prism TV

Fort Myers, Fla., Aug. 24, 2016 – Lee County's government access channel, LeeTV, is now part of CenturyLink's Prism TV lineup. Prism TV customers now will be able to watch Lee Board of County Commissioners' meetings and other programming on Channel 88. LeeTV also will be available to subscribers in CenturyLink's tri-county area of Lee, Collier and Charlotte counties as well as parts of Hendry County.

All regularly scheduled Commission meetings will be broadcast along with other county and state programming. LeeTV provides residents and visitors with information about Lee County government and public safety, health and state-related news. Some of its programs include Lee County Updates, Lee Do the Right Thing, Crossroads Café, Lee Animal Services Pet Match, Waterways, Living Green, WGCU's Untold Stories, UF/IFAS Reports and more. A schedule can be found at www.leegov.com/technologyservices/leetv/schedule.

LeeTV also broadcasts on the Comcast cable system Channel 97 and is streamed via the county's website www.leegov.com/technologyservices/leetv/watchleety. For more information on Lee County Government, visit www.leegov.com.
