

Lee County

US Census Bureau Low Response Score By Census Tract

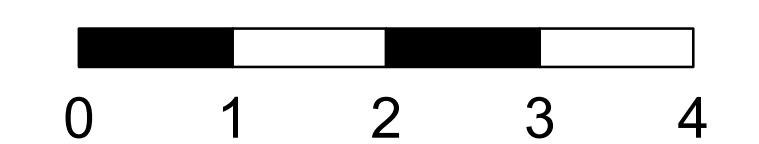

County Boundary

Major Roads

Low Response Score

The Census Low Response Score (LRS) is a continuous score that predicts whether a tract will produce a low mail return rate. The score for a tract is inversely related to the mail return rate from the 2010 Census for that tract. Therefore, tracts with a lower LRS are more likely to mail returns than those with a higher LRS.

Miles

Map created by Lee County Community Development using ESRI products, Census data, and the 2019 Planning Database (US Census Bureau)

February, 2020

