Based on the preliminary mapping of the 2019 FEMA Coastal Study, highlighted areas may experience increases in flood insurance premiums or stricter construction regulations due to changes in flood zone and base flood elevations. Lee County has provided an interactive map application (click here) to help property owners determine the effect on specific parcels.