

Policy:

It is the policy of Lee County through the Board of County Commissioners (“Board”) that all Lee County employees are expected to conduct their professional and personal lives in a completely ethical, truthful, and honorable manner in all dealings with the public and other County employees.

All Lee County employees, including the Board’s Contract Employees (the County Manager, County Attorney, and Hearing Examiner), will conduct themselves in a professional and personal manner so as to maintain public confidence in their profession, their county government, and the public trust.

Lee County recognizes that it is essential to the proper conduct and operation of government that public officials and employees be independent and impartial and that their public office not be used for private gain other than for the compensation as provided by law.-The public interest requires this code protect against any conflict of interest and establish standards for the conduct of elected officials and government employees in situations where conflicts may exist.

All County employees will conduct their official and personal affairs in such a manner so as to not be improperly influenced by anyone in the performance of their official duties.

Lee County further recognizes that it is also essential that government attract those citizens best qualified to serve. Thus, policies against conflict of interest must be designed as not to impede unreasonably or unnecessarily the recruitment and retention by government of those best qualified to serve.

To this end, Lee County remains committed to upholding the high standard of ethics for all public officers and employees as set forth in Part III of Chapter 112, Florida Statutes.
