

Miracle host first-ever Hammond Stadium fireworks show on July 4

Celebrate Independence Day at the ballpark following a 6:05 p.m. game!

FORT MYERS, Fla. (June 15, 2015) - The perfect recipe for patriotism includes apple pie, fireworks and baseball. The Fort Myers Miracle have all three and an All You Can Drink special! The Miracle will be unleashing a spectacular red, white and blue fireworks display in the Southwest Florida sky on Saturday, July 4 after a 6:05 p.m. game with the St. Lucie Mets.

Fans are invited to join a hassle-free 'Fourth' at Hammond Stadium with controlled parking, clean restrooms, a comfortable seat, delicious ballpark food available including a warm slice of apple pie and plenty of beer! Gates open at 4:30 p.m. and parking is just $4 per vehicle. Independence Day fireworks are presented by CenturyLink, Budweiser, the Beasley Media Group and FOX 4.

This year will mark the first-ever Miracle fireworks show on July 4.

"A lot of fireworks events this time of year are just a show in the sky," said Miracle General Manager Andrew Seymour. "At Hammond Stadium, we've got entertainment on the field, between innings and, of course, the pyrotechnics after the game."

"We'll do the cooking, cleaning and provide the convenience for all of our fans!"

Celebrate our nation's independence with America's pastime at the ballpark! Tickets are available for purchase in advance and start at $7.50. To order, call the Miracle offices at \(239\) 768-4210 or www.miraclebaseball.com to buy tickets online.

Liberate your thirst on a SINK or SWIM Saturday with All You Can Drink beers through the sixth inning and a game ticket for one low price! The SINK or SWIM deal gets you a wristband for unlimited domestic draft beers.

The Fort Myers Miracle are the Class A Advanced minor league baseball affiliate of the Minnesota Twins Major League Baseball club.
