North Fort Myers Park hosts annual Fall Festival event

North Fort Myers, FL, Sept. 23, 2015 - The North Fort Myers Community Park, 2000 North Recreation Park Way, North Fort Myers, is hosting its annual Fall Festival, 6-9 p.m., Friday, Oct. 23. This is a free event.

Up to 200 children in costume will receive a free bag of safe candy after the costume contest. Enjoy Inflatable bouncers, family entertainment, a costume contest, give-a-ways and more.

Local businesses are invited to set up a 10-by-10 booth decorated with a fall theme to advertise for free. Businesses are encouraged to have small give-a-ways for children such as candy, key chains, coupons, etc. The sale of items at the Fall Festival is prohibited.

The Fall Festival has drawn over 1,500 people in the past; attendance has steadily increased each year. Volunteers and donations are needed. Contact James Pittro at 239-533-7200 for more information.
