Registration Underway for 2015 Miracle Baseball Camps

Fort Myers Miracle Offers Two Three-Day Camps for 100 Participants

FORT MYERS, Fla. (May 11, 2015) – The Fort Myers Miracle has commenced registration for its 2015 Miracle Baseball Camps. The three-day camps will take place June 16-18 for children ages 6-8 and July 27-29 for children ages 9-12. Registration costs for the camp is $99 per child and is open to the public. The camp will be held 9 a.m. – noon at the CenturyLink Sports Complex in Fort Myers.

The 2015 Miracle Baseball Camp provides 100 campers with the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of baseball from the players and coaching staff of the Miracle team. Participants will have the opportunity to practice baseball skills and develop their knowledge of the game. Campers will also be given t-shirt and gift, daily snack and lunch, certificate of completion and one box seat ticket to the Miracle game for each night of camp.

“Our summer camps provide a valuable learning experience for the campers and are a great way to keep children active over their school break,” said Jeff Smith, manager for the Fort Myers Miracle. “The camp will not only teach the campers about the sport, but it will also allow them to learn about leadership and hard work.”
