Six Mile Cypress Slough Preserve Boardwalk to close for routine repairs

Fort Myers, FL, July 10, 2019 – The boardwalk at Six Mile Cypress Slough Preserve will close for routine repairs and maintenance beginning Monday, July 22, and will remain closed for about a week.

No guided walks will be offered while the boardwalk is closed. However, the Rock and Stroll Garden and Interpretive Center will remain open to visitors. Lee County Parks & Recreation will waive parking fees during the boardwalk's closure; its anticipated reopening is Tuesday, July 30.

The Interpretive Center is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday. It houses a gift shop and educational nature displays. Admission is free. The Rock and Stroll Garden features picnic tables and native plants to attract birds and butterflies.

The preserve is located at 7751 Penzance Blvd., Fort Myers. For more information, call 239-533-7550 or visit www.leeparks.org.
