

Lee County Florida – Emergency Management Speaker Request Form

To help create a better prepared community, Lee County Emergency Management provides information and speakers to discuss Emergency Preparedness and Hurricane Preparedness. To request a presentation, complete this form and hit the “Submit by Email” button (preferred) or print it and return by FAX to 239-477-3636.

NOTES:

Seminars are free of charge and are conducted year round during day and evening hours.

You are free to invite additional participants (i.e., Red Cross, fire department, law enforcement or other experts of interest).

Our presentation can be adjusted to last for 20 - 60 minutes to better meet your schedule.

Except for special events, we typically do not schedule seminars on weekends or holidays.

Emergency Management does not endorse, or advertise, any specific product or service.

This is limited to Lee County. In other areas, contact you local emergency management agency for similar programs.
