Update from 20th Circuit Court:

September 12, 2017

Due to Hurricane Irma, the Chief Judge of the 20th Circuit has extended the closure of all courthouses through Friday, Sept. 15. The courthouses are expected to reopen on Monday, Sept. 18, subject to a further assessment of damages. This includes Lee County, Collier County, Charlotte County, Hendry County, and Glades counties. Updates will be provided via email, social media and the website (once it is restored) (<http://www.ca.cjis20.org/>), and social media.
