

Lee County declares curfew effective 8 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 10

Fort Myers, FL – Lee County has declared a curfew will be in effect as of 8 p.m. tonight, Sunday, Sept. 10. The curfew will span 8 p.m. to 7 a.m. daily until further notice. It applies to all cities as well as unincorporated areas. It prohibits all non-essential pedestrian and vehicular movement during those hours.

Those permitted to be out during the curfew are those providing essential services such as fire, police, emergency medical services, hospital services and utility emergency repairs.

The curfew will be enforced by all city police departments, Lee County Sheriff's Office and additional law enforcement agencies.

Lee County has implemented the curfew to protect its residents and business owners during and after Hurricane Irma.

The curfew is implemented pursuant to Chapter 252 Florida Statutes, State of Florida Executive Order No. 17-235 and Lee County Declaration of a State of Local Emergency Resolution No. 17-09-22.

For updates on hurricane-related announcements, visit the Lee County Emergency Management at www.leeec.com.

