Lee County Emergency Management seeks business partnerships to aid disaster recovery

Fort Myers, FL, May 22, 2015 — Lee County Emergency Management officials are available to meet with your business, organization or chamber to share key steps to improve chances for a full recovery following a hurricane or other disaster.

Topics include creating a disaster plan, training the staff and learning what programs should be in the recovery toolbox – SBA Loans or the Emergency Bridge Loan Program, for example.

To schedule a presentation from Lee County Emergency Management or learn more about public-private partnerships during disasters, contact Planning Chief Lee Mayfield at (239) 533-0620 or lmayfield@leegov.com.
