Lee County Domestic Animal Services invites you to ‘Bark in the Mew Year’

Fort Myers, FL, Dec. 30, 2025 – Lee County Domestic Animal Services kicks off the New Year – or “barks in the mew year” – with adoption fees reduced to $25 for all cats, kittens and adult dogs through the month of January.

Every adoption through Lee County Domestic Animal Services includes a comprehensive adoption package to ensure pets and their new families get off to a great start:

- Spay or neuter surgery
- Age-appropriate vaccinations
- Microchip and registration
- Rabies vaccination (for pets of appropriate age)
- Free health check at the time of adoption

The Pet Adoption Center will be closed Thursday, Jan. 1, and Friday, Jan. 2. Normal hours resume Saturday, Jan. 3.

You can view adoptable animals at www.LeeLostPets.com.

Not ready to adopt? The county has additional options for the community to help the shelter:

- A robust fostering program; learn more at www.leegov.com/animalservices/foster
- The Weekend Warrior program. This program lets community members give a shelter pet a break by fostering for a weekend or week. Learn more at www.leegov.com/animalservices/weekendwarrior
