January 30, 2015

To our Banyan Street neighbors:

We are writing to seek your permission to hold a wedding for our son Charlie and his fiancé Julie Higgins on Banyan Street on May 7, 2016. We have had a home on the island since 1998 and Charlie and his siblings have been coming down to Boca Grande since they were toddlers visiting their grandparents. Charlie and Julie are both from Chicago but Julie wanted a destination wedding and Boca Grande holds a special place in Charlie's heart so the island was the perfect place for them to celebrate their future life together.

Although we are obviously early in the process, it is our expectation that the ceremony will be held at 5 pm, last approximately 30 minutes and any trace of our collective presence will be gone by 6 pm that evening. We anticipate around 120 guests to be seated in folding chairs and will employ Trolleys to bring them to Banyan Street and then to the Pass Club immediately following the ceremony so that there is no traffic congestion in the area.

We have been coming down to Boca Grande for 35 years and both value and respect the privacy, noise and access expectations of our neighbors. Any music that is employed will reflect that high level of respect and we will make sure to minimize any form of inconvenience to all of you.

Thank you for considering this request. Please feel free to contact either of us at the phone numbers or e-mail addresses above should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Jon C. Hunt

Kristine E. Hunt
