February 2, 2015

Dear Ms. Hill,

My fiancé and I are thrilled to be married on October 10, 2015, in Boca Grande. We hope to have your permission and blessing as we are planning to hold the ceremony on Banyan Street. Growing up in Venice, Florida, I have many fond memories of day trips down to Boca Grande either by car or boat. Every visit was always filled with laughter, fun, love, and happiness. These fond memories along with the natural beauty of Banyan Street and Gasparilla Island are the reason we would like to be married here. I have dreamed of this day since I was a little girl and it would be an honor to hold our ceremony on Banyan Street.

The only set up will be folding chairs on the street and a small arbor. We will have a violinist and cellist playing, both of which have played on Banyan Street before. Our ceremony will be officiated by Reverend Doug Rickenbach and will begin at 4pm; it will only be 30-40 minutes in length. Immediately following the ceremony everything will be broken down.

We understand that Banyan Street is part of your way home and will make sure there is as little interference as possible. If you have any questions regarding the ceremony please do not hesitate to call or email. You can also visit our wedding website at krisandkristin.com

We hope to have your blessing.

Best Wishes,

Good afternoon! We previously received sign offs from each of your departments regarding the attached permit. The original approval was for the hours of 3:00pm-6:00pm on October 10, 2015. I am writing to see if there are any objections to a revision to the event hours to 1:30pm-6:00pm.

Please advise – thank you!

Audra,

We originally had this approved from 3-6pm...I don't see on the LCSO sign off where they specified hours? Should I go ahead and re-distribute and just ask if anyone has an objection?

Dear Ms. Ennis,

I just noticed the times on the permit you sent me are a little different from the times the Lee County Sheriff's office approved. Would it be possible to amend our permit for the times 1:30-5:30pm, which is what the Sheriff's office is expecting.

Respectfully,
Kristin Dumas

Attachments: Use of County Land Procedure.pdf

Allyson,

In the past there were issues with weddings on Banyan Street. A few years back, it was decided to only allow one wedding per weekend up to three hours in length. This was decided by the Banyan Street residents, Lee County P&R, Sherriff's Office, DOT, and the Boca Grande Fire Department. I think a couple other Departments may have been present in the meeting. The criteria attached is what we came up with. I don't have an objection extending the hours in October, but November –April, we should try and stick to the procedures that we discussed. If it is approved, the permit holder will need to contact Bridget with the Sherriff's Office to schedule detail officers for the entire length of the approved permit.

Thanks,
