March 31, 2021

Dear Banyan Street resident,

My fiancé, Lincoln Day and I are planning to exchange our vows on Banyan Street on Saturday, October 2, 2021 at 4:30 p.m. I grew up coming to my family's home in Boca Grande and I have always recognized and appreciated the beauty and history of this special street. I have been taught by my great grandparents, Bayard and Mary Sharp, my grandparents, Will and Sarah Farish, and my parents, Bill and Kelley Farish, to treat the Island with care, preservation and respect.

We understand the inconvenience that is caused when the street is closed on a Saturday afternoon. We would like to invite you to have a drink at The Pink on us during our ceremony. Just let The Pink Elephant team know you are a Banyan Street resident and we will take care of your round of drinks as a small token of our appreciation to you for sharing your beautiful street with us.

Banyan Street and Boca Grande are such an important part of our lives. We look forward to teaching our children how to love, care and respect this street and this Island for generations to come.

Thank you for your understanding!

Best regards,

Andrea Farish & Lincoln Day
