

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Betsy Clayton, APR/CPRC
Communications Director
Lee County Government
239-533-0793
LeeCountyPIO@leegov.com

Passage to Pine Island bridge now open to emergency personnel, utility trucks and Florida DOT

Fort Myers, FL, Oct. 5, 2022 – Lee County and the Florida Department of Transportation with the assistance of private contractors have restored access to the Pine Island bridge from the mainland.

Emergency personnel, utility and supply trucks, and FDOT crews now have access to make the island safe and secure. Soon, residents will be able return to their homes and start their recovery. Check for updates from Lee County government by following @Lee County Government on Facebook, www.facebook.com/leecountyflbocc.

More information is available at www.leegov.com/storm