Re: Benefit Elections

There are several changes that employers have made as a result of Healthcare Reform. Under the Affordable Care Act (also known as the ACA and Federal Healthcare Reform), Lee County, as your benefits administrator, is required by the U.S. Department of Labor to provide you with the attached notice.

The purpose of the notice is to provide employees with information concerning the Health Insurance-Marketplace, also known as "Exchanges". The Exchanges are a competitive insurance marketplace, established by the government, where individuals and small firms can shop among health plans for coverage. Lee County provides affordable coverage (the employee's required contribution for employee-only coverage exceeds 9.5% of household income), minimum essential coverage (the minimum insurance package that fulfills the requirements of the mandate that all individuals carry insurance) and minimum value (the employer must provide coverage at the 60% level) to all employees. All employees are eligible to purchase insurance in the Health Insurance Marketplace, but not all employees will be eligible for the subsidy.

You can obtain the contact information for Florida's health insurance marketplace, which became available October 1, 2013, from HealthCare.gov or go online at: <https://go.leefl.gov/HR-LegalNotices>

If you have general questions about healthcare reform or state health exchanges, you may contact Human Resources Benefits at 239-533-2245.

Lynne Peterson

RE: FINAL CHOICE – LEE COUNTY BENEFITS PLAN

The decisions on the benefits options you choose must be received in the Human Resources Benefits Office not later than two weeks after your original New Employee Orientation.

In order to serve all participants to the best of our ability, the Benefits Office Staff cannot guarantee the timely processing of your information and the issuance of your insurance identification cards if your enrollment forms are not returned by the requested deadline.

This is your only opportunity to take advantage of enrolling in Medical, Dental, Vision, FSA Reimbursement Accounts; covering dependents on your insurance plans; or to elect Short Term Disability and/or Optional Life Insurance coverage at a Guaranteed Issue. The enrollment forms are provided to you in your benefit information package. If you do not have the forms, please contact our office or stop by immediately so that they can be provided to you.

Documentation is required if you wish to cover a spouse and/or child(ren) on any insurance plan prior to your dependents being enrolled in any insurance plan. These are used to verify information and proof of relationship. The required documents are:

- Spouse Enrollment: Copies of 1) Certified Marriage Certificate, 2) Social Security Card, and 3) Passport, Birth Certificate, or Driver's License.
- Dependent Children: Copies of Birth Certificate and Social Security Card.

In some instances, you may be asked to provide court orders, custody documents, or legal guardianship paperwork.

Review your paystubs during the month in which your benefits become effective for accuracy of insurance plan payroll deductions.

If you do not submit enrollment paperwork prior to your effective date, you will be enrolled in Life Insurance and Long Term Disability only. These are employer-paid benefits. All other plans involve payroll deductions and require your authorization.

Your next opportunity to make changes to your plans will be Open Enrollment which occurs in November each year. Some changes may require Evidence of Insurability (EOI).

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Human Resources Benefit Team 239-533-2245

(Please print)

SS#: xxx-xx-_____
(Required)

Effective Date of Enrollment: _____ Dept: _____

BoCC employees may not participate in the Opt-Out plan, if they are covered by another Lee County or covered entity plan.

By signing this agreement, I understand all aspects of this plan as they have been presented to me, and agree to all the terms of this benefit.

- Enrollment in this plan takes effect for all new employees when all other benefits become active. Existing employees can ONLY enroll during open enrollment that becomes effective on January 1 of the next plan year. You must present proof of your other insurance to qualify.
- While enrolled in this plan, I will not be eligible to rejoin the Lee County Health Plan until the next annual open enrollment period benefits become effective on January 1st of the following plan year. Unless I experience a qualifying event, that allows re-enrollment, as defined in the Lee County's Health Plan documents.
- I am responsible for reporting to Human Resources any change in my health insurance status within 60 days of the date of any qualifying event which would allow me to rejoin the Lee County Health Plan. This is done by submitting an enrollment and change form with the appropriate documents attached (i.e., proof of loss of health insurance coverage, etc.). If I do not contact Human Resources to report an event within the specified time limit, I will NOT be eligible to rejoin the health plan until the next open enrollment period.
- Should I experience a qualifying event during the plan year and rejoin the Lee County Health Plan, I will not be eligible for re-enrollment in the Opt-Out benefit, regardless of my health insurance status, until the next open enrollment period.
- In order to re-enroll once I have cancelled the “Opt-Out Plan”, I must present proof of other insurance coverage to re-qualify for the plan during open enrollment as well as provide a new written waiver of coverage.

Note: Once enrolled, participation will automatically “roll over” into each succeeding plan year unless the employee has rejoined the health plan. Rejoining the health plan at any time will automatically STOP the opt-out benefit payment of $50 per month.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT

THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION

LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS

Eligible employees who work for a covered employer can take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a 12-month period for the following reasons:

- The birth of a child or placement of a child for adoption or foster care;
- To bond with a child (leave must be taken within one year of the child’s birth or placement);
- To care for the employee’s spouse, child, or parent who has a qualifying serious health condition;
- For the employee’s own qualifying serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job;
- For qualifying exigencies related to the foreign deployment of a military member who is the employee’s spouse, child, or parent.

An eligible employee who is a covered servicemember’s spouse, child, parent, or next of kin may also take up to 26 weeks of FMLA leave in a single 12-month period to care for the servicemember with a serious injury or illness.

An employee does not need to use leave in one block. When it is medically necessary or otherwise permitted, employees may take leave intermittently or on a reduced schedule.

Employees may choose, or an employer may require, use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. If an employee substitutes accrued paid leave for FMLA leave, the employee must comply with the employer’s normal paid leave policies.

While employees are on FMLA leave, employers must continue health insurance coverage as if the employees were not on leave.

Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to the same job or one nearly identical to it with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions.

An employer may not interfere with an individual’s FMLA rights or retaliate against someone for using or trying to use FMLA leave, opposing any practice made unlawful by the FMLA, or being involved in any proceeding under or related to the FMLA.

BENEFITS & PROTECTIONS

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

An employee who works for a covered employer must meet three criteria in order to be eligible for FMLA leave. The employee must:

- Have worked for the employer for at least 12 months;
- Have at least 1,250 hours of service in the 12 months before taking leave;* and
- Work at a location where the employer has at least 50 employees within 75 miles of the employee’s worksite.

*Special “hours of service” requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

REQUESTING LEAVE

Generally, employees must give 30-days’ advance notice of the need for FMLA leave. If it is not possible to give 30-days’ notice, an employee must notify the employer as soon as possible and, generally, follow the employer’s usual procedures.

Employees do not have to share a medical diagnosis, but must provide enough information to the employer so it can determine if the leave qualifies for FMLA protection. Sufficient information could include informing an employer that the employee is or will be unable to perform his or her job functions, that a family member cannot perform daily activities, or that hospitalization or continuing medical treatment is necessary. Employees must inform the employer if the need for leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified.

Employers can require a certification or periodic recertification supporting the need for leave. If the employer determines that the certification is incomplete, it must provide a written notice indicating what additional information is required.

Once an employer becomes aware that an employee’s need for leave is for a reason that may qualify under the FMLA, the employer must notify the employee if he or she is eligible for FMLA leave and, if eligible, must also provide a notice of rights and responsibilities under the FMLA. If the employee is not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for ineligibility.

Employers must notify its employees if leave will be designated as FMLA leave, and if so, how much leave will be designated as FMLA leave.

Employees may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.

The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

VERY IMPORTANT NOTICE
Group Health Continuation under COBRA
(Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act)
For the LEE COUNTY BENEFITS PLAN

If you, your spouse, or your dependent children lose coverage under our health, dental, vision and flex spending plans because of a qualifying event, then you may have the right to elect continuation coverage under the Public Health Services Act, also known as COBRA coverage.

Who May Elect Continuation Coverage?

An employee, spouse or dependent child who has coverage under our group health and dental plan on the day before a qualifying event may elect continuation coverage. An employee may also elect continuation coverage for children born or adopted by the employee during the continuation period.

For families that lose coverage, each family member can separately elect continuation coverage. However, unless otherwise specified, an employee's election to continue coverage will be deemed to include an election of continuation for the employee's spouse and dependent children. Similarly, a spouse's election to continue coverage will be deemed to include an election of continuation for any dependent child covered by the plan.

Although an employee and spouse can continue coverage on behalf of other family members, they cannot decline coverage on behalf of other family members. For example, if an employee declines continuation coverage, the spouse or dependent child can elect to continue their coverage.

What Is Continuation Coverage?

If you or your child experiences a qualifying event, you may continue the health coverage you had immediately before the event occurred. If you continue coverage, you will not have to provide proof of insurability in order to continue coverage, and during open enrollment periods, you will have the same rights as active employees to change your coverage.

What Is a Qualifying Event?

A qualifying event occurs when you or a dependent child loses coverage under Lee County's health and dental plan because:

- ♦ A covered employee terminates employment for any reason other than gross misconduct or has a reduction in hours to fewer than the number required for plan participation.
- ♦ A covered employee dies.
- ♦ A covered employee becomes divorced from the spouse.
- ♦ A covered employee, or retiree becomes covered by Medicare.
- ♦ A covered child loses dependent status under a plan.

Do I Have to Notify Lee County of Any Qualifying Events?

Employees or their families must notify Lee County in the event of a divorce, or when a child no longer qualifies as a covered dependent under the plan within 60 days after these events occur. Individuals failing to notify Lee County of these events within the 60-day period will not be permitted to continue coverage.

Can I Have More Than One Qualifying Event?

Sometimes, a spouse or dependent child can have more than one qualifying event. A second qualifying event occurs if the following three conditions are met:

- ♦ The first event is the employee's employment termination or reduction in hours.
- ♦ The second event is a sort that gives rise to 36 months of continuation coverage (e.g., a covered employee's death or divorce).
- ♦ The second event takes place while continuation coverage is in effect.

If a second qualifying event occurs, we will extend the maximum coverage period from 18 months to 36 months, measured from the date of the first qualifying event. A qualified beneficiary is not entitled to more than 36 months of continuation coverage.

How Do I Elect Continuation Coverage?

If you and/or dependent children have a qualifying event, we will send you a notice of your continuation rights. At that time, you will have up to 60 days to decide whether you want to continue your health coverage through the Lee County plan. This election period will end 60 days from the later of the following two dates:

- ♦ The date coverage would otherwise terminate.
- ♦ The date the company notifies you of your continuation rights.

How Long Can I Continue Coverage?

If the qualifying event is employment termination or reduction in hours, the maximum period of time you can continue coverage is 18 months from the date of the qualifying event. For other qualifying events, the maximum period is 36 months. However, if the employee is covered by Medicare prior to the time of the termination or reduction, the period of coverage for the spouse and dependents will end after 18 months or, if greater, 36 months from the date the employee became covered by Medicare.

Can Lee County Terminate My Continuation Coverage Before the Maximum Coverage Period Ends?

Lee County can terminate your continuation coverage before the maximum coverage period ends for any of the following reasons:

- ♦ Payment for continuation coverage is not received on a timely basis.
- ♦ After electing continuation coverage, you become covered by another group health plan maintained by another employer that does not limit or exclude your coverage for any preexisting medical condition.
- ♦ After electing continuation coverage, you become covered by Medicare.
- ♦ Lee County ceases to provide group health plan coverage for all active employees.
- ♦ For cause, such as submission of a fraudulent claim.

Do I Have to Pay for My Continuation Coverage?

You must pay the full cost of continuation coverage, plus 2 percent for Lee County's administrative expenses. We will include information on the cost of continuation coverage and the payment terms in notices to individuals who have a qualifying event.

Do Special Provisions Apply to the Disabled?

If the Social Security Administration determines that you were disabled at any time during the first 60 days of continuation coverage, you can request an extension in the maximum coverage period from 18 to 29 months. This extension applies not only to the disabled individual, but also to covered family members.

To obtain this extended coverage, you must notify the plan administrator at the address below within 60 days of Social Security's disability determination and 18 months of the qualifying event.

If you receive this extended coverage, you must pay 102 percent of the full cost of the continuation coverage for the first 18 months. After 18 months, the required payments will increase from 102 percent to 150 percent of the full cost of coverage if the disabled individual elects the extended coverage. Otherwise, the required payments will remain at 102%.

If you receive the extended coverage, you are required by law to notify the plan administrator that you are no longer disabled within 30 days of any such determination made by Social Security. Once notified, your extended coverage will be terminated effective the first month beginning more than 30 days after Social Security's determination.

HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act)

This legislation was passed to allow employees certain rights with respect to health plan waiting periods, special enrollments and pre-existing conditions. HIPAA requires employers providing group health coverage to employees to provide a Certificate of Creditable Coverage (also known as a HIPAA Certificate) to any participant who, for any reason, is no longer participating in the plan. If your last day of coverage is less than 63 days from the date you become eligible to enroll in the Lee County Health plan, all pre-existing conditions will be waived. HIPAA states that pregnancy will not be considered a pre-existing condition. If you have any questions regarding your rights under the COBRA and HIPAA legislation, please contact us at 239-533-2245.
