Free rides on LeeTran buses for Earth Day inspired Try Transit Day

Fort Myers, FL, April 3, 2025 – Lee County Transit, LeeTran, will be offering free rides on all fixed-route buses for Try Transit Day on Saturday, April 19.

Try Transit Day is intended to increase ridership by raising awareness of the economic and environmental benefits of utilizing public transit. Commuters are encouraged to try out Lee County Transit to experience a greener and more cost-effective transportation option.

To view a full system map and route schedules, visit www.RideLeeTran.com or plan your route using the transit option in Google Maps.

LeeTran is the public transit provider for Lee County. LeeTran operates 25 bus routes during season and a paratransit service known as Passport. LeeTran employs nearly 300 people and has a fleet of 57 fixed-route vehicles, five beach trams, 50 paratransit vans and six micro-transit vehicles. To learn more about the services offered by LeeTran, or for schedule and fare information, call 239-LEE-TRAN, or visit www.RideLeeTran.com
