Children's reading success in kindergarten and beyond begins with positive language and literacy experiences from the time they are infants.

- Young children have shorter attention spans. You can do activities for short bits of time throughout the day or whenever you have the chance.
- You can help your children learn in ways and at times that are best for them.
- Parents are tremendous role models—if your children see that you think reading is important and enjoy it, they will follow your lead.
- Children learn best by doing—and they love doing things with YOU!

The driver on the bus says "move on back" . . .
The people on the bus go up and down . . .
The babies on the bus go "wah, wah, wah" . . .
The parents on the bus go "shh, shh, shh" . . .

IF I WERE A BIRD

If I were a bird, I'd sing a song
And fly about the whole day long.
And when the night comes, go to rest,
Up in my cozy little nest.
