Public meeting set to discuss the Lee County Civic Center complex

Fort Myers, FL, July 21, 2023 – Lee County Parks & Recreation will host a drop-in style public meeting regarding the Civic Center complex from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 17, at the North Fort Myers Recreation Center, 2000 North Recreation Park Way, North Fort Myers.

A public survey was created in March to garner public input on long-term options for the Lee County Civic Center complex. The public meeting will give residents the opportunity to view the survey results and help give input on the future of the complex.

The meeting will be a drop-in format so residents can attend at whatever time is convenient for them to view presentation materials and interact with staff.

Lee County has launched a landing page, www.leegov.com/CivicCenter, to provide easy access to information about the Civic Center, including interactive maps, history, timelines and more in a user-friendly format. The site also includes summaries of recent Board of County Commissioners' actions and links to videos so residents can watch the Board discussions. A virtual comment card will be available on the Civic Center landing page for one week following the meeting for those who were not able to attend.
