

When is an Independent Contractor Contract required?

- Independent Contractor Contract was created for doing business with individuals operating with their Social Security number instead of a Federal Identification number.
- If you are only using an individual once, then the Purchase Order issued will act as the contract and you will not need an Independent Contractor Contract.

View contract document: Independent Contractor Contract