2. QUESTIONS/ANSWERS

1.	I was wondering if there is a new or revised set of roadway plans other than what is posted to the website. I noticed the plans from AIM Engineering are from 2010, which seems pretty dated to me. Any insight you might be able to provide would be greatly appreciated.
Answer	2010 plans posted on the DOT web page are the most current roadway plans available for this corridor (Ortiz Ave SR80 to SR82). https://www.leegov.com/dot/engineeringservices/projectsplans
