

Thursday, September 14, 2017

Although Hurricane Irma stayed inland rather than in the Gulf and this was not a huge erosion event, some damage occurred at our beaches and county-access beach parks. Initial Lee County Parks & Recreation assessments show damage to Bonita Beach Accesses 2-9 and Matanzas Pass Preserve.

However, now re-opened are Bowditch Point Park, Lynn Hall Park and Bunche Beach.